Cross Checking

Cross checking is a very important strategy!

When you come to a word that you do not know, try your best to figure it out. Then ask yourself:
- Does it look right?
- Does it sound right?
- Does it make sense?

If the word you tried looks right, sounds right, and makes sense, then you can keep reading! If you answered no to one of the questions, then try a new word.